

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MICRON TECHNOLOGY, INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED MICROELECTRONICS
CORPORATION, and FUJIAN JINHUA
INTEGRATED CIRCUIT CO., Ltd.

Defendants.

Case No. 17-cv-06932-JSW

ORDER DENYING STIPULATION REGARDING ADR WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Re: Dkt. No. 35

Plaintiff and Defendant United Microelectronics Corporation submitted a stipulation and proposed order selecting an ADR process.¹ However, they apparently do not agree upon the proposed deadline by which to complete ADR. United Microelectronics proposes a deadline 30 days after a ruling on its pending motions to dismiss. It is not clear that Plaintiff has agreed to that deadline. This potential dispute also appears relevant to a request to continue the case management conference. United Microelectronics initially submitted that request to the Court in a letter brief. Because the Court only permits letter briefs for discovery disputes, United Microelectronics has been directed to re-file that request in a proper format.

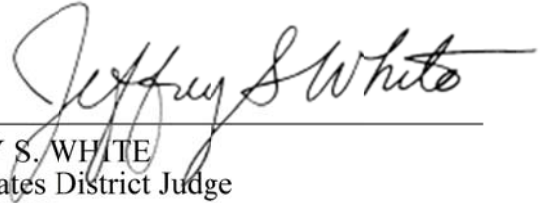

The Court DENIES the stipulation regarding ADR without prejudice. If the parties cannot agree on a deadline by which private mediation should occur, they shall submit a renewed stipulation and shall set forth their respective positions on a deadline by no later than March 2, 2018. If the parties do agree on a deadline, they shall submit a stipulation and proposed order that ¹ Defendant Fujian Jinhua Integrated Circuit Co., Ltd. has not yet appeared. It is not clear whether Plaintiff has served Fujian Jinhua with the complaint, and it is not a party to this stipulation.

1 clearly reflects that agreement by March 2, 2018.

2 IT IS SO ORDERED.
